

The American Guild of Organists

Third Public Service in Philadelphia

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY
Nineteenth and Walnut Streets

November Twenty-first, 1901

AT 7.45 P. M.

Set forth by the Council

THE Congregation is respectfully urged to support the Guild in its effort to present the highest worship music, by making Liberal Contributions, by means of the offertory.

Order of the Service

Processional Hymn, 311 T. A. Jeffery

A NCIENT of days, who sittest, throned in glory;
To Thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
Thy love has blest the wide world's wondrous story,
With light and life since Eden's dawning day.

O Holy Father, who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the Fire and Cloud,
Through seas dry-shod; through weary wastes bewildering;
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour,
To Thee we owe the peace that still prevails,
Stillling the rude wills of men's wild behavior,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase:
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity, and peace.

O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;
Pray we, that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favor, kept to us always. Amen.

Bp. Wm. Croswell Doane, 1886.

Organ Prelude. Pontifical March F. De La Tombelle

The Sentences

(To be read by the Minister; Congregation standing.)

Praise God in His Sanctuary.
Praise Him in the firmament of His power.
Praise Him for His mighty acts.
Praise Him with stringed instruments and organs. Psalm cl.

God hath granted me to speak as I would, and to conceive as is meet for the things that are given me; because it is He that leadeth unto wisdom, and directeth the wise. For in His hand are both we and our words; all wisdom also and knowledge of workmanship. Wisdom of Solomon 7: 15-16.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest. Ecclesiastes 9: 10.

I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day; the night cometh when no man can work. St. John 9: 4.

For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. Heb. 9: 24.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer;
the people kneeling and repeating it with him.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open Thou our lips.

Answer. And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

Minister. Praise ye the Lord.

Answer. The Lord's name be praised.

The Psalter Psalm Ninety-six

SING unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the whole earth.
Sing unto the Lord and praise His Name: be telling of His salvation from day to day.

Declare His honor unto the heathen: and His wonders unto all people.
For the Lord is great, and cannot worthily be praised: He is more to be feared than all gods.

As for all the gods of the heathen, they are but idols: but it is the Lord that made the heavens.

Glory and worship are before Him: power and honor are in His sanctuary.
Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people: ascribe unto the Lord worship and power.

Ascribe unto the Lord the honor due unto His Name: bring presents, and come into His courts.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: let the whole earth stand in awe of Him.

Tell it out among the heathen that the Lord is King: and that it is He who hath made the round world so fast that it cannot be moved: and how that He shall judge the people righteously.

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad: let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is.

Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord.

For He cometh, for He cometh to judge the earth: and with righteousness to judge the world and the people with His truth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. A-men.

The Lesson from Holy Scripture II Chronicles xx: 20

The Magnificat in A-Flat A. H. Mann

A Declaration of the Religious Principles of the American Guild of Organists

To be read by the Minister and Members of the Guild, standing.

FOR the greater glory of God, and for the good of His Holy Church in this land, we being severally members of the American Guild of Organists, do declare our mind and intention in the things following:

We believe that the Office of Music in Christian Worship is a Sacred Oblation before the Most High.

We believe that they who are set as Choirmasters and as Organists in the House of God ought themselves to be persons of devout conduct, teaching the ways of earnestness in the Choirs committed to their charge.

We believe that unity of purpose and fellowship of life between Ministers and Choirs should be everywhere established and maintained. We believe that at all times and in all places it is meet, right and our bounden duty to work and to pray for the advancement of Christian Worship in the holy gifts of strength and nobleness; to the end that the Church may be purged of her blemishes, that the minds of men may be instructed, that the honor of God's house may be guarded in our time and in the time to come.

Wherefore we do give ourselves with reverence and humility to these endeavors, offering up our works and our persons in the Name of Him without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell, The third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholic Church, The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; And the Life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling; the Minister first pronouncing,

Minister. The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Let us pray.

O Lord, show Thy mercy upon us.

Answer. And grant us Thy salvation.

Minister. O Lord, save the state

Answer. And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.

Minister. Endue Thy Ministers with righteousness.

Answer. And make Thy chosen people joyful.

Minister. O Lord, save Thy people.

Answer. And bless Thine inheritance.

Minister. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Answer. For it is Thou Lord only, that makest us dwell in safety.

Minister. O God, make clean our hearts within us.

Answer. And take not Thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Collect

O LORD, we beseech Thee, absolve Thy people from their offences; that through Thy bountiful goodness we may all be delivered from the bands of those sins, which by our frailty we have committed. Grant this, O Heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for Peace

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto Thy servants that peace, which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that by Thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for Aid Against Perils

LIGHTEN our darkness; we beseech Thee, O Lord; and by Thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night: for the love of Thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Anthem. "Come unto Me" H. R. Couldrey

Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn of Me: for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

A Prayer for the greater glory of God in Christian Worship

(From Prayers authorized by the Church of Scotland.)

ALMIGHTY God, who hast deigned to gather us into Thy Visible Church, grant that we may never turn aside from the purity of Thy worship; but always regarding what pleaseth Thee may order all our thoughts and doings in obedience to Thy revealed will; and so honor Thee as becometh those who are true members of Thy Son's Body, that Thy Name may be glorified in us. We thank Thee that Thou hast promised for His sake to be present in the assemblies of Thy people and to grant their requests for whatsoever good things they shall agree on earth to ask of Thee; and we beseech Thee to help our infirmity, and so to lift up our thoughts and draw forth our desires toward Thee, that we may render an acceptable service, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Offertorium. "Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice" . . . Sir John Goss

Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice: for the Lord will do great things.

Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring: for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength. Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God.

The floors shall be full of wheat, and ye shall eat in plenty and be satisfied. And praise the name of the Lord your God that hath dealt so wondrously with you.

At the Presentation

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Congregational Hymn, 261 J. Hatton

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun	People and realms of every tongue
Does his successive journeys run;	Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,	And infant voices shall proclaim
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.	Their early blessings on His Name.

To Him shall endless prayer be made,	Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
And praises throng to crown His head;	The prisoner leaps to burst his chains,
His Name like sweet perfume shall rise	The weary find eternal rest,
With every morning sacrifice.	And all the sons of want are blest.

Let every creature rise and bring Peculiar honors to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

The Address By the Reverend Floyd W. Tomkins, S. T. D.

Anthem. "It came even to pass" Rev. Sir F. A. Gore Ouseley

It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lord.

And when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and with instruments of music, and praised the Lord, saying:

For He is good: [for His mercy endureth for ever.

And then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the Lord. So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud.

For the Glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord. Hallelujah! Amen.

The Postlude: Concerto No. 2 (first movement) G. F. Handel

¶ Let us pray.

A Prayer for the Guild of Organists

(Compiled from the Mozarabic Rite and the Provisional Offices of the Mexican Episcopal Church.)

O GOD, our Light and our Salvation, whose days are without beginning and without end, grant that by Thy holy inspiration we [Thy servants who are joined together in this undertaking] may know what we ought to do, and that by Thy grace we may be enabled to perform the same. Grant us, we humbly beseech Thee, such prosperity as Thou seest to be good for us, and make us to abound in such works as may be pleasing unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Catholic Unity

(Compiled from the Liturgy of Basil the Great.)

O LORD, who bledest them that bless Thee, and hallowest them that trust in Thee, save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance; guard the fullness of Thy Church; hallow them that love the beauty of Thy House; give them a glorious reward through Thy Divine power, and leave us not who hope in Thee. Grant peace to Thy Churches and to all Thy people, because every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from Thee, the Father of Lights. Visit us in Thy bounty, O Lord, be manifest unto us in Thy rich compassions; quiet the schisms of the Churches by the power of Thy Holy Spirit, making us children of light, and children of the day. Remember, O Lord, Thy holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, from one end of the world to the other, and give peace unto it, which Thou hast purchased with the precious blood of Thy Christ, and strengthen this Holy House until the consummation of the world. And grant us with one mouth and one heart to glorify and praise Thine all honored and majestic Name, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen.

The Blessing

THE peace of God which passeth all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

Vesper Hymn, 535 Sir Joseph Barnby

Recessional Hymn, 408 G. F. Lejeune

Jerusalem, the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiance of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesu, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest. Amen.

The Psalter—PSALM XCI. Qui habitat.....Plain Song

(The Compline Psalm.)

WHOSO dwelleth under the defence of the most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my strong-hold: my God, in him will I trust.

3. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6. For the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

7. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8. Yeá, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the ungodly.

9. For thou, Lord, art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10. There shall no evil happen unto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

13. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yeá, I am with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour.

16. With long life will I satisfy him: and shew him my salvation.

17. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

18. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

The Collect for the Twenty-fourth Sunday After Trinity

O LORD, we beseech Thee, absolve Thy people from their offences; that through Thy bountiful goodness we may all be delivered from the bands of those sins, which by our frailty we have committed. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Antbem—Ecclesiastes xii: 1, 2, 3, 4.....Dr. Charles Steggall

REMEMBER now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; while the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain: in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, and the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low:—Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. Vanity, vanity, vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

¶ Let us pray.

A General Thanksgiving

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, Thine unworthy servants, do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men. We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer of S. Chrysostom

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto Thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in Thy Name Thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Antbem—Psalm xlvii: 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10.....Dr. Maurice Greene (1695-1755)

GOD is our hope and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth tremble, though the mountains shake, and the waters rage and swell.

For God is in the midst of us, therefore shall we not be moved: God is our hope and refuge.

O behold the works of the Lord. He maketh wars to cease in all the world. He is exalted among the heathen, He is exalted in the earth.

The Address*By the Reverend G. Woolsey Hodge*

Organ Voluntary—Allegro vivace in C*Hans Huber*

I will magnify Thee, O Lord; for Thou hast set me up, and not made my foes to triumph over me.—Psalm xxx.

Praise the Lord in the sound of the trumpet: praise Him upon the lute and harp.—Psalm cl.

The Offertory, "For the Dedication of an Organ" (tune) Aurelia

With hymns of glad rejoicing
This look'd-for day to greet,
Within Thy courts, O Father,
Behold, Thy servants meet:
Accept our gifts, we pray Thee,
Ourselves, our means, our pow'rs,
Accept our humble service,
Forgive our misspent hours.

That with uplifted praises
These walls may better ring,
We offer Thee our organ,
Of instruments the king,
From all unholy uses
For ever set apart,
To Thine eternal glory
Designed by hallow'd art.

We praise Thee for Thy goodness
From age to age made known,
To us as to our fathers
Unceasingly forthshewn;
For craftsman's skill we thank Thee,
For powers of hand and mind,
That heralding Thy praises,
Their noblest honor find.

For Lamech's son we thank Thee,
Whose skill th' immortal art
By breath of wind to organs
Did first thro' pipe impart;
For flute and harp and trumpet,
For men, whose holy lore
Sweet melodies discov'reth,
We thank Thee and adore.

E'en so, until in splendor
Is set the great white Throne,
Thy praises clear-voic'd organs
Shall peal in thankful tone,—
Or in cathedral lofty,
Or in fair English vale,
Or where far o'er the ocean
The Church's hymns ne'er fail.

Till with the choirs of heaven
In robes of white array,
With music in Thy temple
We serve Thee night and day,—
Where there shall be no parting,
No sorrow, no more pain,
But in unending brightness
Thy blessed Saints remain. Amen.

DEAN PLUMPTRE.

Anthem, Isaiah xxxv: 1, 2, 4, 6, 8, 9, 10, Dr. Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing.
Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God, even God, He will come and save you.

Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

And a highway shall be there; it shall be called The Way of Holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but the redeemed shall walk there.

And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

¶ Let us Pray.

A Prayer for the Greater Glory of God in Christian Worship

(From Prayers authorized by the Church of Scotland.)

ALMIGHTY God, who hast deigned to gather us into Thy Visible Church, grant that we may never turn aside from the purity of Thy worship; but always regarding what pleaseth Thee may order all our thoughts and doings in obedience to Thy revealed will; and so honor Thee as becometh those who are true members of Thy Son's Body, that Thy Name may be glorified in us. We thank Thee that Thou hast promised for His sake to be present in the assemblies of Thy people and to grant their requests for whatsoever good things they shall agree on earth to ask of Thee; and we beseech Thee to help our infirmity, and so to lift up our thoughts and draw forth our desires toward Thee, that we may render an acceptable service, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the Guild of Organists

(Compiled from the Mozarabic Rite and the Provisional Offices of the Mexican Episcopal Church.)

O GOD, our Light and our Salvation, whose days are without beginning and without end, grant that by Thy holy inspiration we [Thy servants who are joined together in this undertaking] may know what we ought to do, and that by Thy grace we may be enabled to perform the same. Grant us, we humbly beseech Thee, such prosperity as Thou seest to be good for us, and make us to abound in such works as may be pleasing unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Catholic Unity

(Compiled from the Liturgy of Basil the Great.)

O LORD, who blessest them that bless Thee, and hallowest them that trust in Thee, save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance; guard the fullness of Thy Church; hallow them that love the beauty of Thy House; give them a glorious reward through Thy Divine power, and leave us not who hope in Thee. Grant peace to Thy Churches and to all Thy people, because every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from Thee, the Father of Lights. Visit us in Thy bounty, O Lord, be manifest unto us in Thy rich compassions; quiet the schisms of the Churches by the power of Thy Holy Spirit, making us children of light, and children of the day. Remember, O Lord, Thy holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, from one end of the world to the other, and give peace unto it, which Thou hast purchased with the precious blood of Thy Christ, and strengthen this Holy House until the consummation of the world. And grant us with one mouth and one heart to glorify and praise Thine all honored and majestic Name, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen.

The Postlude—Toccata et Fuga, D minor (Book IV). . . . John Sebastian Bach

The Blessing

THE peace of God which passeth all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

Set Forth by the Council

THE Congregation is respectfully urged to support the Guild in its effort to present the highest worship music, by making Liberal Contributions by means of the offertory.

A Declaration of the Religious Principles of the American Guild of Organists

FOR the greater glory of God, and for the good of His Holy Church in this land, we being severally members of the American Guild of Organists, do declare our mind and intention in the things following :

We believe that the Office of Music in Christian Worship is a Sacred Oblation before the Most High.

We believe that they who are set as Choirmasters and Organists in the House of God ought themselves to be persons of devout conduct, teaching the ways of earnestness in the Choirs committed to their charge.

We believe that unity of purpose and fellowship of life between Ministers and Choirs should be everywhere established and maintained. We believe that at all times and in all places it is meet, right and our bounden duty to work and to pray for the advancement of Christian Worship in the holy gifts of strength and nobleness ; to the end that the Church may be purged of her blemishes, that the minds of men may be instructed, that the honor of God's house may be guarded in our time and in the time to come.

Wherefore we do give ourselves with reverence and humility to these endeavors, offering up our works and our persons in the Name of Him without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy.

Order of the Service

Processional Hymn, 520 Dr. A. H. Messiter

REJOICE, ye pure in heart !
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing !
Your glorious banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ your King !

Bright youth, and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek ;
Raise high your free, exulting song !
God's wondrous praises speak !

With all the angel choirs,
With all the saints of earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth !

Your clear hosannas raise,
And alleluias loud !
Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud.

Yes, on through life's long path !
Still chanting as ye go ;
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

Still lift your standard high !
Still march in firm array !
As warriors through the darkness toil,
Till dawns the golden day !

At last the march shall end ;
The wearied ones shall rest ;
The pilgrims find their Father's house,
Jerusalem the blest.

Then on, ye pure in heart !
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing !
Your glorious banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ your King !

The Sentences

(To be read by the Minister ; Congregation standing.)

Praise God in His Sanctuary.
Praise Him in the firmament of His power.
Praise Him for His mighty acts.
Praise Him with stringed instruments and organs. Psalm cl.

God hath granted me to speak as I would, and to conceive as is meet for the things that are given me ; because it is He that leadeth unto wisdom, and directeth the wise. For in His hand are both we and our words ; all wisdom also and knowledge of workmanship. Wisdom of Solomon 7: 15-16.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might ; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest. Ecclesiastes 9: 10.

I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day ; the night cometh when no man can work. St. John 9: 4.

For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true ; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. Heb. 9: 24.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer :
the people kneeling and repeating it with him.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil : For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open Thou our lips.
Answer. And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost ;
Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Minister. Praise ye the Lord.
Answer. The Lord's name be praised.

The Psalter Psalm Ninety-six

O SING unto the Lord a new song : sing unto the Lord, all the whole earth.
Sing unto the Lord and praise His name : be telling of His salvation from day to day.
Declare His honor unto the heathen : and His wonders unto all people.
For the Lord is great, and cannot worthily be praised : He is more to be feared than all gods.
As for all the gods of the heathen, they are but idols : but it is the Lord that made the heavens.
Glory and worship are before Him : power and honor are in His sanctuary.
Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people : ascribe unto the Lord worship and power.
Ascribe unto the Lord the honor due unto His name : bring presents and come into His courts.
O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness : let the whole earth stand in awe of Him.
Tell it out among the heathen that the Lord is King : and that it is He who hath made the round world so fast that it cannot be moved : and how that He shall judge the people righteously.
Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad : let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is.
Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it : then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord.
For He cometh, for He cometh to judge the earth : and with righteousness to judge the world and the people with His truth.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Lesson—Epistle to the Ephesians ; 4:1-16

The Magnificat, in f Dr. W. W. Gilchrist

The Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth :
And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord ; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary ; Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried ; He descended into hell, The third day He rose again from the dead ; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost ; The holy Catholic Church, The Communion of Saints ; The Forgiveness of sins ; The Resurrection of the body ; And the Life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling ; the Minister first pronouncing,

Minister. The Lord be with you.
Answer. And with thy spirit.
Minister. Let us pray.
O Lord, show Thy mercy upon us.
Answer. And grant us Thy salvation.
Minister. O Lord, save the state.
Answer. And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.
Minister. Endue Thy Ministers with righteousness.
Answer. And make Thy chosen people joyful.
Minister. O Lord, save Thy people.
Answer. And bless Thine inheritance.
Minister. Give peace in our time, O Lord.
Answer. For it is Thou Lord only, that makest us dwell in safety.
Minister. O God, make clean our hearts within us.
Answer. And take not Thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Collect

L ORD, we beseech thee to keep thy household the Church in continual godliness ; that through thy protection it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve thee in good works, to the glory of thy Name ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Collect for Peace

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed ; Give unto Thy servants that peace, which the world cannot give ; that our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that by Thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness ; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for Aid Against Perils

L IGTEN our darkness ; we beseech Thee, O Lord ; and by Thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night : for the love of Thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Anthem. "Save us, O Lord" Ed. C. Bairstow

Save us, O Lord, waking,
Guard us sleeping,
That awake we may watch with Christ,
And asleep we may rest in peace. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

First Organ Voluntary { a. Sonata in C minor (first movement) Salomé

Offertorium. "Hail Gladdening Light" . . . Sir George C. Martin

Hail gladdening Light, of His pure glory poured
Who is the Immortal Father, Heavenly Blest,
Holiest of Holies, Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Now are we come to the sun's hour of rest,
The lights of evening round us shine;
We hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Divine.
Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung,
With undefiled tongue, Son of our God, Giver of Life, Alone;
Therefore, in all the world Thy glories, Lord, they own.

At the Presentation

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Congregational Hymn, 491 Dr. S. S. Wesley

THE Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation
By water and the word:
From heaven He came and sought her
To be His holy Bride;
With His own blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation,
One Lord, one Faith, one Birth;
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distressed;
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

Vesper Hymn, 15 H. Hiles

Recessional Hymn, 510 H. Smart

GO forward, Christian soldier,
Beneath His banner true !
The Lord Himself, thy Leader,
Shall all thy foes subdue.
His love foretells thy trials ;
He knows thine hourly need ;
He can with bread of heaven
Thy fainting spirit feed.

Go forward, Christian soldier !
Fear not the secret foe ;
Far more o'er thee are watching
Than human eyes can know :
Trust only Christ, thy Captain ;
Cease not to watch and pray ;
Heed not the treacherous voices
That lure thy soul astray.

Go forward, Christian soldier !
Nor dream of peaceful rest,
Till Satan's host is vanquished
And heaven is all possessed ;
Till Christ Himself shall call thee
To lay thine armor by,
And wear in endless glory
The crown of victory.

Go forward, Christian soldier !
Fear not the gathering night :
The Lord has been thy shelter ;
The Lord will be thy light.
When morn His face revealeth,
Thy dangers all are past :
Oh, pray that faith and virtue
May keep thee to the last !

At Eight O'clock

Set Forth by the Council

THE Congregation is respectfully urged to support the Guild in its effort to present the highest worship music, by making Liberal Contributions by means of the offertory.

A Declaration of the Religious Principles of the American Guild of Organists.

For the greater glory of God, and for the good of His Holy Church in this land, we being severally members of the American Guild of Organists, do declare our mind and intention in the things following:

We believe that the office of Music in Christian Worship is a Sacred Oblation before the Most High.

We believe that they who are set as Choirmasters and Organists in the House of God ought themselves to be persons of devout conduct, teaching the ways of earnestness in the Choirs committed to their charge.

We believe that unity of purpose and fellowship of life between Ministers and Choirs should be everywhere established and maintained. We believe that at all times and in all places it is meet, right, and our bounden duty to work and to pray for the advancement of Christian Worship in the holy gifts of strength and nobleness; to the end that the Church may be purged of her blemishes, that the minds of men may be instructed, that the honor of God's house may be guarded in our time and in the time to come.

Wherefore we do give ourselves with reverence and humility to these endeavors, offering up our works and our persons in the Name of Him without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy.

Order of the Service

Processional Hymn, 304.....Sir George J. Elvey

CROWN Him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon His throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own:
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of Him Who died for thee,
And hail Him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

Crown Him the Son of God
Before the worlds began,
And ye, who tread where He hath trod,
Crown Him the Son of Man;
Who every grief hath known
That wrings the human breast,
And takes and bears them for His own,
That all in Him may rest.

Crown Him the Lord of Life,
Who triumphed o'er the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife
For those He came to save;
His glories now we sing
Who died, and rose on high,
Who died, eternal life to bring,
And lives that death may die.

Crown Him of lords the Lord,
Who over all doth reign,
Who once on earth, the Incarnate Word,
For ransomed sinners slain,
Now lives in realms of light,
Where saints with angels sing
Their songs before Him day and night,
Their God, Redeemer, King.

Crown Him the Lord of Heaven,
Enthroned in worlds above;
Crown Him the King, to Whom is given
The wondrous name of Love.
Crown Him with many crowns,
As thrones before Him fall,
Crown Him, ye kings, with many crowns,
For He is king of all. Amen.

Matthew Bridges, 1848.

Organ Prelude—Concert overture in C major*Alfred Hollins*

The Sentences.

(To be read by the Minister; Congregation standing.)

Praise God in His Sanctuary.
Praise Him in the firmament of His power.
Praise Him for His mighty acts.
Praise Him with stringed instruments and organs. Psalm cl.

God hath granted me to speak as I would, and to conceive as I meet for the things that are given me; because it is He that leadeth unto wisdom, and directeth the wise. For in His hand are both we and our words; all wisdom also and knowledge of workmanship. Wisdom of Solomon vii. 15, 16.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest. Ecclesiastes ix. 10.

I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day; the night cometh when no man can work. St. John ix. 4.

For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. Heb. ix. 24.

¶ *Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer:
the People kneeling and repeating it with him.*

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open Thou our lips.

Answer. And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Minister. Praise ye the Lord.

Answer. The Lord's name be praised.

Office Hymn, 150.

JESU, our Hope, our heart's Desire,
Thy work of grace we sing,
Redeemer of the world art Thou,
Its Maker and its King.

How vast the mercy and the love
Which laid our sins on Thee,
And led Thee to a cruel death,
To set Thy people free!

But now the bonds of death are burst,
The ransom has been paid,
And Thou art on Thy FATHER's Throne
In glorious robes array'd.

O may Thy mighty love prevail
Our sinful souls to spare!
O may we stand around Thy Throne
And see Thy glory there!

JESU, our only Joy be Thou,
As Thou our Prize wilt be;
In Thee be all our glory now
And through eternity.

All praise to Thee Who art gone up
Triumphantly to Heav'n;
All praise to GOD the FATHER's Name
And HOLY GHOST be given.

Antiphon.

YE men of Galilee, why gaze ye up into heaven? This same Jesus which is taken from you into heaven shall so come.
Alle-lu-ia! Alle-lu-ia!

The Psalter—Psalm ciii—Laude pueri.....Psalm cxiii

Praise the Lórd, ye servants: O praise the Name of the Lórd.
Bléssed be the Náme of the Lórd: from this time forth for evermore.
The Lórd's Náme is praised: from the rising up of the sún unto the going down of the sáme.
The Lórd is hígh above áll heathen: and his glóry above the heavens.
Who is líke unto the Lórd our Gód, that hath his dwélling so high: and yet húmbleth himself to behóld the things that are in heaven and eárrth?
He táketh up the símple out of the dust: and lífteth the poór out of the míre;
That he may sét him with the princes: éven with the princes of his people.
He maketh the bárren woman to keép house: and to be a joyfúl mother of children.
Glory be to the Father, etc.

The Lesson—Epistle to the Ephesians, iv : 1-16.

Antiphon.

O KING of glory, Lord of might! Who to-day in triumph didst ascend above all the heavens: Leave us not comfortless; but send the promise of the Father upon us, the Spirit of truth, Alle-lu-ia!

The Magnificat—In B flat.....Henry Smart

The Apostles' Creed.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was Crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell, The third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; And the life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling; the Minister first pronouncing,

Minister. The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Let us pray.

O Lord, show Thy mercy upon us.

Answer. And grant us Thy salvation.

Minister. O Lord, save the state.

Answer. And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.

Minister. Endue Thy Ministers with righteousness.

Answer. And make Thy chosen people joyful.

Minister. O Lord, save Thy people.

Answer. And bless Thine inheritance.

Minister. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Answer. For it is Thou Lord only, that makest us dwell in safety.

Minister. O God, make clean our hearts within us.

Answer. And take not Thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Collect for Ascension Day.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that like as we do believe Thy only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with Him continually dwell, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

A Collect for Peace.

() GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that by Thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for Aid against Perils.

LIGHTEN our darkness; we beseech Thee, O Lord; and by Thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night: for the love of Thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Anthem—Psalm lv. (Paraphrase).....Jacob Arcadelt

GIVE ear unto my prayer, O Lord my God; and hide not Thyself from my supplication.

Attend to me and hear me; I mourn in my complaint and make a noise; My heart is sore pained within me.

O hear my prayer! Hide not Thyself!

I mourn, I mourn! O hear me! Hear my prayer, O Lord God!

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Organ Voluntary—"Pastorale in G major"Gustav Merkel

Offertorium—Rev. v. 12, 13George Frederic Handel

WORTHY is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by His blood, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

Blessing and honour, glory and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

The Address

By the Reverend George H. Moffett, D.D., Rector of St. Clement's Church

Te Deum Laudamus, in CWarwick Jordan

The Postlude—Toccata and Fugue in F major....Johann Sebastian Bach

A Prayer for the greater glory of God in Christian Worship.

(From Prayers authorized by the Church of Scotland.)

ALmighty God, who hast designed to gather us unto Thy Visible Church, grant that we may never turn aside from the purity of Thy worship; but always regarding what pleaseth Thee may order all our thoughts and doings in obedience to Thy revealed will; and so honor Thee as becometh those who are true members of Thy Son's Body, that Thy Name may be glorified in us. We thank Thee that Thou hast promised for His sake to be present in the assemblies of Thy people and to grant their requests for whatsoever good things they shall agree on earth to ask of Thee; and we beseech Thee to help our infirmity, and so to lift up our thoughts and draw forth our desires toward Thee, that we may render an acceptable service, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the Guild of Organists.

(Compiled from the Mozarabic Rite and the Provisional Offices of the Mexican Episcopal Church.)

O GOD, our Light and our Salvation, whose days are without beginning and without end, grant that by Thy holy inspiration we [Thy servants who are joined together in this undertaking] may know what we ought to do, and that by Thy grace we may be enabled to perform the same. Grant us, we humbly beseech Thee, such prosperity as Thou seest to be good for us, and make us to abound in such works as may be pleasing unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Catholic Unity.

(Compiled from the Liturgy of Basil the Great.)

O LORD, who blessest them that bless Thee, and hallowest them that trust in Thee, save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance; guard the fullness of Thy Church; hallow them that love the beauty of Thy House; give them a glorious reward through Thy Divine power, and leave us not who hope in Thee. Grant peace to Thy Churches and to all Thy people, because every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from Thee, the Father of Lights. Visit us in Thy bounty, O Lord, be manifest unto us in Thy rich compassions; quiet the schisms of the Churches by the power of Thy Holy Spirit, making us children of light, and children of the day. Remember, O Lord, Thy Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, from one end of the world to the other, and give peace unto it, which Thou hast purchased with the precious blood of Thy Christ, and strengthen this Holy House until the consummation of the world. And grant us with one mouth and one heart to glorify and praise Thine all-honored and majestic Name, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen.

The Blessing.

THE peace of God which passeth all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

Retrocessional Hymn, 147.....Dr. William H. Monk

HAIL the day that sees Him rise
To His throne above the skies;
Christ the Lamb for sinners given,
Enters now the highest heaven.

Alleluia!

There for Him high triumph waits;
Lift your heads, eternal gates;
He hath conquered death and sin,
Take the King of glory in.

Alleluia!

Lo! the heaven its Lord receives,
Yet He loves the earth He leaves;
Though returning to His throne,
Still He calls mankind his own.

Alleluia!

See! He lifts His hands above;
See! He shows the prints of love;
Hark! His gracious lips bestow
Blessings on His Church below.

Alleluia!

Still for us He intercedes,
His prevailing death He pleads,
Near Himself prepares our place,
He the first-fruits of our race.

Alleluia!

Lord, though parted from our sight,
Far above the starry height,
Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Seeking Thee above the skies.

Alleluia! Amen.

The Thirteenth Public Service
in Philadelphia

S. Luke's Church

Main and Coulter Streets, Germantown

Tuesday, January Twenty-third, 1906

At Eight O'clock

The Congregation is Respectfully

Urged to support the Guild in its effort to present the highest worship music, by making

Liberal Contributions

by means of the Offertory

A Declaration of the Religious Principles of the American Guild of Organists

For the greater glory of God, and for the good of His Holy Church in this land, we being severally members of the American Guild of Organists, do declare our mind and intention in the things following:

We believe that the Office of Music in Christian Worship is a Sacred Oblation before the Most High.

We believe that they who are set as Choirmasters and as Organists in the House of God ought themselves to be persons of devout conduct, teaching the ways of earnestness in the Choirs committed to their charge.

We believe that unity of purpose and fellowship of life between Ministers and Choirs should be everywhere established and maintained. We believe that at all times and in all places it is meet, right and our bounden duty to work and to pray for the advancement of Christian Worship in the holy gifts of strength and nobleness; to the end that the Church may be purged of her blemishes, that the minds of men may be instructed, that the honor of God's house may be guarded in our time and in the time to come.

Wherefore we do give ourselves with reverence and humility to these endeavors, offering up our works and our persons in the Name of Him without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy. Amen.

Order of the Service

Processional Hymn, 323. Zoan

Hail to the Lord's anointed,
Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break up oppression,
To set the captive free:
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

He comes with succor speedy
To those who suffer wrong,
To help the poor and needy
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth:
Before Him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go;
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

Kings shall bow down before Him,
And gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore Him,
His praise all people sing;
To Him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end.

O'er every foe victorious,
He on His throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious,
All blessing and all-blest:
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His Name shall stand forever,
His changeless Name of love.

J. Montgomery, 1821.

Organ Prelude—Prelude to "Parsifal" Wagner

The Sentences

(To be read by the Minister: Congregation standing.)

Praise God in His Holiness.
Praise Him in the firmament of His power.
Praise Him in His mighty acts.
Praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

God hath granted me to speak as I would, and to conceive as is meet for the things that are given me; because it is He that leadeth unto wisdom, and directeth the wise. For in His hand are both we and our words; all wisdom also and knowledge of workmanship. Wisdom of Solomon 7:15-16.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest. Ecclesiastes 9:10.

I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day; the night cometh when no man can work. St. John 9:4.

For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. Heb. 9:24.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer: the people kneeling and repeating it with him.

Our father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open Thou our lips.

Answer. And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

Minister. Praise ye the Lord.

Answer. The Lord's Name be praised.

The Psalter The Nineteenth Selection of Psalms

GEO. ALEX. A. WEST.

PSALM CXLVII.—Laudate Dominum.

1. O praise the Lord * for it is a good thing to sing praises | unto * our | God : yea, a joyful and pleasant thing | is to | be | thankful.

2. The Lord doth build | up Je- | -rusalem : and gather together the | outcasts of | Israel.

3. He healeth those that are | broken * in | heart : and giveth | medicine * to | heal their | sickness.

4. He telleth the number | of the | stars : and calleth them | all | by their | names.

5. Great is our Lord * and great | is his | power : yea, and his | wisdom | is | infinite.

6. The Lord setteth | up the | meek : and bringeth the ungodly | down | to the | ground.

7. O sing unto the Lord with | thanks- | -giving : sing praises upon the | harp | unto * our | God.

8. Who covereth the heaven with clouds * and prepareth rain | for the | earth : and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains * and herb | for the | use of | men.

9. Who giveth fodder | unto * the | cattle : and feedeth the young | ravens * that | call up- | -on him.

10. He hath no pleasure in the strength | of an | horse : neither delighteth | he | in | any * man's | legs.

11. But the Lord's delight is in | them that | fear him : and put their | trust | in his | mercy.

12. Praise the Lord | O Je- | -rusalem : praise thy | God, | O | Sion.

13. For he hath made fast the bars | of thy | gates : and hath | blessed * thy | children * with- | -in thee.

14. He maketh peace | in thy | borders : and fillet thee | with the | flour of | wheat.

15. He sendeth forth his commandment up- | -on | earth : and his word | run- | neth | very | swiftly.

16. He giveth | snow like | wool : and scattereth the | hoar- | -frost like | ashes.

17. He casteth forth his | ice like | morsels : who is able | to a- | -bide his | frost?

18. He sendeth out his word, and | melteth | them : he bloweth with his wind | and the | waters | flow.

19. He sheweth his word | unto | Jacob : his statutes and ordinances | unto | Isra- | -el.

20. He hath not dealt so with | any | nation : neither hath the heathen | know- | ledge | of his | laws.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

The Lesson I. Chronicles XV.: 14-24

The Magnificat Mann in A flat

(Tenor Solo, MR. H. M. ELLIOTT, St. Luke's Choir)

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The Holy Catholic Church, The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; And the Life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling; the Minister first pronouncing,

Minister. The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Let us pray.

O Lord, show Thy mercy upon us.

Answer. And grant us Thy salvation.

Minister. O Lord, save the state.

Answer. And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.

Minister. Endue Thy Ministers with righteousness.

Answer. And make Thy chosen people joyful.

Minister. O Lord, save Thy people.

Answer. And bless Thine inheritance.

Minister. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Answer. For it is Thou Lord only, that makest us dwell in safety.

Minister. O God, make clean our hearts within us.

Answer. And take not Thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Collect for the Third Sunday after the Epiphany

Almighty and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and necessities stretch forth thy right hand to help and defend us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Collect for Peace

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto Thy servants that peace, which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that by Thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for Aid Against Perils

Lighten our darkness; we beseech Thee, O Lord; and by Thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night: for the love of Thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Anthem—"Hail Gladdening Light" Dr. G. C. Martin

(Verse parts: Choir of the Church of the Saviour.)

Hail gladdening Light, of His pure glory poured

Who is the Immortal Father, Heavenly, Blest,

Holiest of Holies, JESUS CHRIST, our Lord.

Now we are come to the sun's hour of rest,

The lights of evening 'round us shine,

We hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Divine.

Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung

With undefiled tongue,

Son of our God, Giver of life, Alone;

Therefore in all the world Thy glories, Lord, they own.

Collect

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Anthem—"The Wilderness" Dr. S. S. Wesley

(Verse parts: St. Luke's Choir.)

Bass Solo Mr. Jos. W. Bramwell

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing.

Say to them of a fearful heart, be strong, fear not: behold your God; He will come and save you.

Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing; for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

And a highway shall be there; it shall be the way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but the redeemed shall walk there.

And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Offertorium—"Dithyrambe" Basil Harwood

At the Presentation

"All things come of Thee, O Lord,
And of Thine own have we given Thee."

Anthem—"The Sorrows of Death" }
"The Night is Departing" } Mendelssohn

AIR—(TENOR)

Mr. Charles Mannypenny, Church of the Saviour Choir

The sorrows of death had closed all around me, and hell's dark terrors had got hold upon me, with trouble and deep heaviness; but said the Lord, "Come, arise from the dead, and awake thou that sleepest, I bring thee salvation."

RECITATIVE—(TENOR)

We called through the darkness, "Watchman, will the night soon pass?" The watchman only said, "Though the morning will come, the night will come also."

Ask ye, enquire ye, ask if ye will, enquire ye, return again, ask, "Watchman, will the night soon pass?"

SOLO (SOPRANO) AND CHORUS

The night is departing, the day is approaching. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us gird on the armour of light. The day is approaching, the night is departing.

Organ Postlude—"Prelude and Fugue" (B minor) J. S. Bach
¶ Let us pray.

A Prayer for the Greater Glory of God in Christian Worship

(From Prayers authorized by the Church of Scotland.)

Almighty God, who hast deigned to gather us into Thy Visible Church, grant that we may never turn aside from the purity of Thy worship; but always regarding what pleaseth Thee may order all our thoughts and doings in obedience to Thy revealed will; and so honor Thee as becometh those who are true members of Thy Son's Body, that Thy Name may be glorified in us. We thank Thee that Thou hast promised for His sake to be present in the assemblies of Thy people and to grant their requests for whatsoever good things they shall agree on earth to ask of Thee; and we beseech Thee to help our infirmity, and so to lift up our thoughts and draw forth our desires toward Thee, that we may render an acceptable service, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the Guild of Organists

(Compiled from the Mozarabic Rite and the Provisional Offices of the Mexican Episcopal Church.)

O God, our Light and our Salvation, whose days are without beginning and without end, grant that by Thy holy inspiration we [Thy servants who are joined together in this undertaking] may know what we ought to do, and that by Thy grace we may be enabled to perform the same. Grant us, we humbly beseech Thee, such prosperity as Thou seest to be good for us, and make us to abound in such works as may be pleasing unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Catholic Unity

(Compiled from the Liturgy of Basil the Great.)

O Lord, who blessest them that bless Thee, and hallowest them that trust in Thee, save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance; guard the fullness of Thy Church; hallow them that love the beauty of Thy House; give them a glorious reward through Thy Divine power, and leave us not who hope in Thee. Grant peace to Thy Churches and to all Thy people, because every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from Thee, the Father of Lights. Visit us in Thy bounty, O Lord, be manifest unto us in Thy rich compassions; quiet the schisms of the Churches by the power of Thy Holy Spirit, making us children of light, and children of the day. Remember, O Lord, Thy holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, from one end of the world to the other, and give peace unto it, which Thou hast purchased with the precious blood of Thy Christ, and strengthen this Holy House until the consummation of the world. And grant us with one mouth and one heart to glorify and praise Thine all honored and majestic Name, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen.

The Blessing

The peace of God which passeth all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

Retrocessional Hymn, 65. Dix

"When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy."

As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold,
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious LORD, may we Evermore be led to Thee.

As they offered gifts most rare
At Thy cradle rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
CHRIST, to Thee our heavenly King.

As with joyful steps they sped,
Saviour, to Thy lowly bed,
There to bend the knee before
Thee Whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

Holy JESUS, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
Thou its Sun which goes not down;
There for ever may we sing
Alleluias to our King.

ORGAN PRELUDE—Marche Pontificale (from First Symphony) C. M. Widor

PROCESSIONAL—Hymn 311

Ancient of days, Who sittest, throned in glory;
 To Thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
 Thy love has blest the wide world's wondrous story,
 With light and life since Eden's dawning day.

O Holy Father, Who hast led Thy children
 In all the ages, with the Fire and Cloud,
 Through seas dry-shod; through weary wastes bewildering;
 To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour,
 To Thee we owe the peace that still prevails,
 Still the rude wills of men's wild behavior,
 And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Lifegiver,
 Thine is the quickening power that gives increase:
 From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
 Our plenty, wealth, prosperity, and peace.

O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
 Praise we the goodness that doth crown
 our days;
 Pray we, that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
 Thy love and favor, kept to us always.

PRECES AND RESPONSES

PSALM 72

Deus, judicium.

1. Give the King thy judgments, O God: and thy righteousness unto the King's son.
2. Then shall he judge thy people according unto right: and defend the poor.
3. The mountains also shall bring peace: and the little hills righteousness unto the people.
4. He shall keep the simple folk by their right: defend the children of the poor, and punish the wrong doer.

5. They shall fear thee, as long as the sun and moon endureth: from one generation to another.

6. He shall come down like the rain into a fleece of wool: even as the drops that water the earth.

7. In his time shall the righteous flourish: yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth.

8. His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other: and from the flood unto the world's end.

9. They that dwell in the wilderness shall kneel before him: his enemies shall lick the dust.

10. The kings of Tharsis and of the isles shall give presents: the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

11. All kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall do him service.

12. For he shall deliver the poor when he crieth: the needy also, and him that hath no helper.

13. He shall be favourable to the simple and needy: and shall preserve the souls of the poor.

14. He shall deliver their souls from falsehood and wrong: and dear shall their blood be in his sight.

15. He shall live, and unto him shall be given of the gold of Arabia: prayer shall be made ever unto him, and daily shall he be praised.

16. There shall be an heap of corn in the earth, high upon the hills: his fruit shall shake like Libanus, and shall be green in the city like grass upon the earth.

17. His Name shall endure for ever; his Name shall remain under the sun among the posterities: which shall be blessed through him; and all the heathen shall praise him.

18. Blessed be the Lord God, even the God of Israel: which only doeth wondrous things;

19. And blessed be the Name of his majesty for ever: and all the earth shall be filled with his majesty. Amen, Amen.

ANTHEM—"Now when Jesus was Born" Joseph Holbrooke

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem in the days of Herod the King, behold, there came wise men from the East unto Jerusalem.

Saying, "Where is He that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East, and are come to worship Him."

And when they were come unto the house they saw the young Child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped Him; and when they had opened their treasures they presented unto Him gifts; gold, and frankincense and myrrh.

And being warned of God that they should not return to Herod they departed unto their own country another way. And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise, and take the young Child, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word.

For out of Egypt have I called my son.

OFFERTORIUM—Concerto, in G minor M. Camidge
(Matthew Camidge (1794-1842) was for some years organist of York Minster)

ANTHEM—"How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place" Brahms

How lovely is Thy dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts! For my soul, it longeth, yea, fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God.

Blest are they that dwell within Thy house; they praise Thy name evermore. How lovely is Thy dwelling place.

PRAYERS AND BLESSING

RECESSIONAL HYMN 520

Rejoice, ye pure in heart!
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing!
Your glorious banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ your King!

Bright youth, and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek:
Raise high your free, exulting song!
God's wondrous praises speak!

With all the angel choirs
With all the saints of earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth!

Your clear hosannas raise,
And alleluias loud!
Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud.

Yes, on through life's long path!
Still chanting as ye go;
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

Still lift your standard high!
Still march in firm array!
As warriors through the darkness toil,
Till dawns the golden day!

At last the march shall end;
The wearied ones shall rest;
The pilgrims find their Father's house,
Jerusalem the blest.

Then on, ye pure in heart!
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing!
Your glorious banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ your King!

THE SON OF DAVID BOWED TO DIE

(Processional Hymn)

THE Son of David bowed to die,
For man's transgressions stricken;
The Father's arm of power was nigh,
The Son of God to quicken.
Praise Him that He died for men:
Praise Him that He rose again.

Death seemed all-conquering when he bound
The Lord of life in prison;
The night of death was nowhere found
When Christ again was risen;
Wherefore praise Him night and day,
Him who took death's sting away.

His saints with Him must bow to death,
With Him are raised in spirit,
With Him they dwell above by faith,
Accepted through His merit:
Heaven and earth resound the strain,
Death by Jesus Christ is slain.

Joseph Anstice

David D. Wood

David Duffield Wood (1838-1910) was born in Western Pennsylvania, near Pittsburgh. He lost his sight at an early age, through an accident. When five years old he was sent to the Institution for the Instruction of the Blind, in Philadelphia, where he distinguished himself in mathematics as well as in music. He was for forty-six years Organist and Choirmaster of St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia. Concurrently, for about twenty-five years, he filled the same position at the Baptist Temple, playing the organ at the evening service.

DAY OF JUDGMENT

(In place of Psalter)

UPON the Day of Judgment do I meditate with great awe,
And all my wicked deeds do I lament;
How may I answer the great Eternal King?
How may I dare to answer the summons of the Judge?

O Thou most gracious Father, and the only begotten Son,
Spirit Divine, have mercy upon me.

Russia accepted Christianity from Greece at the close of the tenth century, and synonymous with this, the musical interest of the race became centered in Church music.

From the first all instrumental music was excluded, and it was this law which gave rise to an unparalleled development of pure choral music.

This anthem is one of the finest types of the modern Russian school, rich in both its harmonic and melodic treatment, and after a meditative opening, in which the great depth of the octavo bass part plays no small part, as is characteristic of Russian church music, it gradually rises to a forceful climax and closes with a quiet sustained passage of a prayerful nature.

GO TO DARK GETHSEMANE

(After the First Lesson)

GO to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see,
Watch with Him one bitter hour;
Turn not from His griefs away,
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

Follow to the judgment hall;
View the Lord of Life arraigned;
O the wormwood and the gall!
O the pangs His soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
Learn of Him to bear the cross.

Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at His feet,
Mark the miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete;
"It is finished"! hear Him cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die. AMEN.

The composer, T. Tertius Noble, is now Organist and Choirmaster of St. Thomas' Church, New York City.

He came to this position from York Minster Cathedral, England, during which appointment he contributed much to music of the Anglican Church.

This anthem is the latest from his pen and was written especially for this service, being dedicated to the Choir of the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany, and their Organist, H. Alexander Matthews.

O SAVIOUR OF THE WORLD

(After the Second Lesson)

O Saviour of the world, who by Thy cross and passion hath redeemed us; Save us and help us, we humbly beseech Thee, O Lord.

The musical setting of these words is for soprano solo and chorus and is an excerpt from the cantata, "The Triumph of the Cross," by H. Alexander Matthews.

The composer has contributed much to the music of the Church and besides this cantata has published four others, all of which have become popular works in this country.

HOW BLEST ARE THEY

(After Creed and Collects)

*IN MEMORIAM

HOW blest are they whom Thou hast chosen and taken unto Thee, O Lord!
Their memorial is from generation to generation.
Alleluia! Amen.

*This anthem is sung as a tribute to the memory of a former member of the Pennsylvania Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, Lieutenant F. Averay Jones, former Organist and Choirmaster of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, and who resigned that post to enlist in the British army two years ago. He died of wounds received in France on December 5, 1917.

ADDRESS.....By the Rector

INTERLUDE—"Andante in E Flat" (Organ, Harp and Violin), Edward Shippen Barnes
After the Anthem

"Whosoever thou art that enterest this Church, leave it not without one prayer to God for thyself, for those who worship, and those who minister here."

The offerings in this parish, at every service, are for some form of beneficence. They are always for others; never for ourselves. Not a dollar laid upon the Altar in this Chancel in ten years has gone to defray Church Expenses; every penny has gone to the doing of Church Work.

THE CONGREGATION IS RESPECTFULLY URGED TO SUPPORT THE GUILD IN ITS EFFORT TO PRESENT THE HIGHEST WORSHIP MUSIC, BY MAKING LIBERAL CONTRIBUTIONS BY MEANS OF THE OFFERTORY.

(After the Address)

GLORY TO THE TRINITY

GLORY to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and to ages of ages. AMEN.

Only begotten Son, Word of the Father, Who art immortal, Thou didst vouchsafe for our salvation to become incarnate of the Holy Mother of God, the blessed and ever Virgin Mary.

Changeless Essence, lo, Thou wast made very Man; and crucified, Thou the God-man, to vanquish death by dying.

Thou alone, O Christ, art glorified in the Trinity with Father and Holy Spirit: O save us.

Lord have mercy upon us.
To Thee, O Lord, we cry. AMEN.

This is the Anthem of the Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, and is prefaced by the Gloria Patri, from which this name was invented. The Gloria is really the closing portion of the Second Antiphon, usually the one hundred and forty-sixth Psalm, and both the Psalm and the Anthem are in the middle of the Little Litany. The composer, Rachmaninoff, is one of the living Russian composers, and visited this country in 1909.

(Congregational Hymn, 101)

WHEN I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it Lord that I should boast,
Save in the Cross of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.

See, from His head, His hands, His feet
Sorrow and love flow mingled down!
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet?
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a tribute far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all. AMEN

Isaac Watts

E. Miller

Isaac Watts (1674-1748) has been called the "father of hymn-writing in the English language." No successful hymn book can be made today which does not show a large proportion of his works in its composition. As a minister, Dr. Watts was much loved of his people. Besides preaching, he was a zealous student of geography, astronomy, philosophy, and theology, and did much writing on these themes. This is considered his finest hymn and is destined to become immortal.

SEE THE DESTINED DAY ARISE!

(Postludium Hymn)

SEE the destined day arise!
See a willing sacrifice!
Jesus, to redeem our loss,
Hangs upon the shameful cross.

Jesu, who but Thou had borne,
Lifted on that tree of scorn,
Every pang and bitter throe,
Finishing Thy life of woe?

Holy Jesu, grant us grace
In that sacrifice to place
All our trust for life renewed,
Pardoned sin, and promised good. AMEN.

Venantius Fortunatas.....Redhead

Venantius Fortunatas, chief Latin poet of his time, was born in Italy about 530, labored in Gaul and later became Bishop of Poitiers.

He traveled for many years through France, composing short pieces of poetry on any subject that occurred to him, and was sometimes referred to as the Troubadour.

He wrote many hymns of singular beauty, all of which are distinguished by an easy rhythmical flow.

HYMN 173 Victory

PRELUDE—Consolation.....H. Alexander Matthews, Mus. Doc.
(Quartet for Violin, 'Cello, Harp and Organ)

SENTENCES OF SCRIPTURE (All standing)

The Lord be with you.

Answer—And with thy spirit.

(All kneeling)

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Minister—O Lord, open Thou our lips.

Answer—And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

(All standing)

Minister—Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer—As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Minister—Praise ye the Lord.

Answer—The Lord's name be praised.

PSALM 148 Laudate Dominum

1. O praise the Lord of heaven: praise him in the height.
2. Praise him, all ye angels of his: praise him, all his host.
3. Praise him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars and light.
4. Praise him, all ye heavens: and ye waters that are above the heavens.
5. Let them praise the Name of the Lord: for he spake the word, and they were made: he commanded, and they were created.
6. He hath made them fast for ever and ever: he hath given them a law which shall not be broken.
7. Praise the Lord upon earth: ye dragons and all deeps;
8. Fire and hail, snow and vapours: wind and storm, fulfilling his word;

9. Mountains and all hills: fruitful trees and all cedars;
10. Beasts and all cattle: worms and feathered fowls;
11. Kings of the earth, and all people: princes, and all judges of the world;
12. Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord; for his Name only is excellent, and his praise above heaven and earth.
13. He shall exalt the horn of his people: all his saints shall praise him: even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth him.

PASLM 150*Laudate Dominum*

1. O praise God in his holiness: praise him in the firmament of his power.
2. Praise him in his noble acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.
3. Praise him in the sound of the trumpet: praise him upon the lute and harp.
4. Praise him in the cymbals and dances: praise him upon the strings and pipe.
5. Praise him upon the well-tuned cymbals: praise him upon the loud cymbals.
6. Let every thing that hath breath: praise the Lord.

THE LESSON—(All sitting)

MAGNIFICAT IN E—(All standing).....Horatio W. Parker

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For He hath regarded: the lowliness of His handmaiden.

For behold from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For He that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is His Name.

And His mercy is on them that fear Him: throughout all generations.

He hath showed strength with His arm: He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich He hath sent empty away.

He remembering His mercy hath holpen His servant Israel: as He promised to our forefathers Abraham and His seed forever.

Gloria Patri.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

Minister—The Lord be with you.

Answer—And with thy spirit.

Minister—Let us pray.

(All kneeling)

O Lord, show Thy mercy upon us.

Answer—And grant us Thy salvation.

Minister—O God, make clean our hearts within us.

Answer—And take not Thy holy Spirit from us.

ANTHEM—(All sitting).....Ralph Kinder

O let the nations be glad, and sing for joy.

O clap your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

For Thou, O God, hast proved us: Thou hast tried us as silver is tried;

Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads: we went through fire and through water;

But Thou broughtest us out: into a wealthy place.

Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.
Amen.

OFFERTORY HYMN 192—(All standing).....Coronation

ORGAN—Festal Prelude.....Gaston Dethier

ANTHEM.....David D. Wood

Behold, I shew you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

So when this incorruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written,
Death is swallowed up in victory.

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Christ is risen, the Lord is risen indeed, from the dead.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

He hath conquered death, and hath opened unto us the gate of everlasting life.
Alleluia, Amen.

ORGAN—"The House of God".....Henry Gordon Thunder
(Written for and dedicated to Miss Anna J. Magee)

Rude once were altars—rocks or sod;
Rude once man's thoughts of Thee, O
God.
Behind the veil of sense he saw
Not purpose vast and changeless law;
But warring gods of many kinds,
Of cruel lusts and prideful minds.

As from the earth so dark and dank
Spring violets sweet on loamy bank,
So from these crude beginnings rose
Among the Jews, through countless woes,
Through prophet's word and hero's sword,
A vision of Jehovah Lord.
Eternal life, Eternal might,
Eternal law, Eternal right.

The God of Sinai's awful storm
Was manifest in gentler form;
The altar to a God unknown
Was by a clearer faith o'erthrown.
When Jesus conquered sin and death,
And taught us by his dying breath
That Love is lord of life and death;
That Love is law and law is love,
Since Love is throned in Heaven above;
That we are not an alien race,
But can behold our Father's face,
Reflected in the loving Son
In whom both God and man are one.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN 68

O One with God the Father
In majesty and might,
The brightness of His glory,
Eternal Light of Light;
O'er this our home of darkness
Thy rays are streaming now;
The shadows flee before Thee,
The world's true Light art Thou.

Yet, Lord, we see but darkly:
O heavenly Light, arise!
Dispel these mists that shroud us,
And hide Thee from our eyes!
We long to track the footprints
That Thou Thyself hast trod:
We long to see the pathway
That leads to Thee our God.

O Jesu, shine around us
With radiance of Thy grace;
O Jesu, turn upon us
The brightness of Thy face.
We need no star to guide us,
As on our way we press,
If Thou Thy light vouchsafest,
O Sun of Righteousness.

PSALM CXLVII.—Laudate Dominum.

8th Tone, 1st Ending.

O PRAISE the Lord, for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God :
yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thank-ful. 2. The Lord doth build up Je - ru - sa - lem : and gather together the out-casts of Is - ra - el.
3. He healeth those that are broken in heart : and giveth medicine to heal their sick-ness. 4. He telleth the number of the stars : and call-eth them all by their names. 5. Great is our Lord, and great is his pow-er : yea, and his wisdom is in-fi-nite. 6. The Lord setteth up the meek : and bringeth the un-
-god-ly down to the ground. 7. O sing unto the Lord with thanks-giv-ing :
sing praises upon the harp un - to our God ; 8. Who covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth : and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men ; 9. Who giveth fodder un- to the cat-tle : and feedeth the young ravens that call up - on him. 10. He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse : neither delighteth he in an-y man's legs.
11. But the Lord's delight is in them that fear him : and put their trust in his mer-cy. 12. Praise the Lord, O Je - ru - sa - lem : praise thy God, O Si - on.

13. For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates : and hath blessed thy chil-dren with-in thee. 14. He maketh peace in thy bor-ders : and fill-eth thee with the flour of wheat. 15. He sendeth forth his commandments up - on earth :
and his word run-neth ve - ry swift-ly. 16. He giveth snow like wool :
and scattereth the hoar-frost like ash - es. 17. He casteth forth his ice like mor-sels : who is a-ble to a-bide his frost ? 18. He sendeth out, his word, and melt-eth them : he bloweth with his wind, and the wa - ters flow.
19. He sheweth his word un-to Ja-cob : his statutes and ordi-nan-ces un-to Is-ra-el.
20. He hath not dealt so with a - ny na - tion : neither have the hea - then knowledge of his laws. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Ho - ly Ghost ; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be :

How lovely is Thy dwelling-place, O Lord of Hosts!
For my soul it longeth, yea, fainteth for Blest are they that dwell within Thy house, they praise Thy Name evermore.

ADDRESS.....The Rev. C. Winfred Douglas

OFFERTORY—HYMN 323

Hail to the Lord's Anointed,
Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free:
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

He comes with succor speedy
To those who suffer wrong,
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth:
Before Him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go:
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

Kings shall bow down before Him,
And gold and incense bring:
All nations shall adore Him,
His praise all people sing:
To Him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end.

O'er every foe victorious,
He on His throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious,
All-blessing and all-blest:
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His Name shall stand forever,
His changeless Name of Love.

ANTHEM—Psalm 150.....Caesar Franck

Hallelujah! O praise ye the Lord, Praise
God in His temple.
Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of His power.
Praise ye Him for His mighty acts, praise ye Him according to His majesty.
Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet, praise ye Him with the psaltery and harp.
Praise ye Him with the timbrel.
Praise ye Him with the dance, praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments.
Praise ye Him upon the loud cymbals.
Praise ye Him upon the high-sounding cymbals.
Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.

RECESSIONAL—Hymn 487

Rise, crowned with light, imperial Salem, rise!
Exalt thy towering head and lift thine eyes!
See heaven its sparkling portals wide display,
And break upon thee in a flood of day.

See a long race thy spacious courts adorn:
See future sons and daughters yet unborn,
In crowding ranks on every side arise,
Demanding life, impatient for the skies.

See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in thy light, and in thy temple bend:
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While every land its joyous tribute brings.

The seas shall waste, the skies to smoke decay,
Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt
away;
But fixed His word, His saving power remains;
Thy realm shall last, thy own Messiah reigns.

ANTHEM—"Hail, Gladdening Light".....Martin

Hail, gladdening Light, of His pure glory poured
Who is the Immortal Father, Heavenly, Blest,
Holiest of Holies, Jesus Christ our Lord,
Now we are come to the sun's hour of rest,
The lights of evening round us shine
We hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Divine.

Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung
With undefiled tongue
Son of our God, giver of life alone!
Therefore in all the world Thy glories, Lord, they own.

ANTHEM—"The Twilight Shadows Fall"
David D. Wood, Mus. Doc.

The twilight shadows fall, But do not fear, At evening comes the call "Be of good cheer" Though dark the clouds above, Trusting our Father's love, The sun sets clear.	The twilight shadows fall, We kneel at peace With Thee, the world and all Our faith increase! Truth, hope and love abide, Lord, Thou hast satisfied Vain troubling cease!

The twilight shadows fall,
Life's goal is nigh;
We soon may hear Thee call
"Come up on high."
Then fades the night away
Greet we the perfect day

1. Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, Holy, Holy, Merciful and Mighty;
God in Three Persons, Blessed Trinity!
2. Holy, Holy, Holy! all the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee;
Which wert, and art, and evermore shall be.
3. Holy, Holy, Holy! though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
Only Thou art holy: there is none beside Thee
Perfect in power, in love, and purity.
4. Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth, and sky, and sea;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty;
God in Three Persons, Blessed Trinity!

THE JOHN BARTRAM HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT CHOIR
John H. Henzel, Conductor
Edward H. Wetherill, Organist-Accompanist

at

ST. JAMES EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF KINGSESSING
Rev. James C. Gilbert, Rector

Saturday, December 2, 1961
8:00 P.M.

THE PROGRAM

1. Psalm 150 Louis Lewandowski
2. In Bethlehem arr. Leo Tellep
3. Advent Motet (Entrance Scene) Gustav Schreck
4. The Old Hundredth Psalm Tune arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams
Stanza I (Choir, Audience, Organ)
All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, His praise forthtell,
Come ye before Him and rejoice
Stanza II (Audience, Organ)
The Lord, ye know, is God indeed,
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.
Stanza III (Choir, Trumpet)
Stanza IV (Choir, Audience, Organ, Trumpets)
For why? the Lord our God is good:
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure. Amen.
5. Saint Nicolas Benjamin Britten
Section IV - He Journeys to Palestine
Section IX - The Death of Nicolas

The part of Nicolas is sung by Frank Henzel
The piano accompanist is Helen Esposito
6. Christmas Day Gustav Holst
7. Sing to God with Gladness Flor Peeters
